NEGLECTED WIFE HAS HUSBAND ARRESTED

Robert J. R. Murray, the Boston & Maine Railroad locomotive engineer who was arrested in Franklin, N. H., charged with neglect to support his wife and children, was arraigned in the Somerville court and after pleading not guilty was held in bonds of $100 for a hearing on May 22.

Mrs. Murray testified against her husband and shortly after leaving the courtroom was notified to vacate the house on Walnut street, on account of arrangements in rent. She immediately moved and put her household goods into storage. Her own sisters, fourteen years old and daughter Evelyn, fifteen years old, have been taken by friends and the youngest member of the family, Harold, two years old, will be placed in the Home for Little Children.

Mrs. Murray is now practically destitute and until she secures employment will be cared for by members of the First Methodist Church, of which she is a member.

Murray was arrested, according to the story by Lieutenant Kennedy of the Somerville police, was in a house on the company of a sixteen-year-old girl, who became hysterical and created a scene by clinging to Murray.

MORE VIOLENCE CHARGED.
In addition to the charge of neglect, Murray will also face the charge of polygamy which the Somerville police have decided to make. The more serious charge grew out of a marriage which he is alleged to have entered into with Miss Emma Chase, of No. 12 South street, Medford, on May 12, 1915, at Nashua, N. H.

According to the police Murray has been living part of the time in Somerville with the woman who nursed his wife and with his second wife, who was Miss Chase.

Mrs. Murray has papers to show that she was married to Murray, and came to this country fourteen years ago. In the last five years has been living in Somerville, in different parts of the city, until three weeks ago her husband disappeared.

First became suspicious of her husband several weeks ago, said Mrs. Murray to a Boston AMERICAN reporter, when he began to give no long money for the house each week. He said the railroad company had reduced his pay and the wages of all the locomotive engineers.

FOUND STORY FALSE.
The day I met an engineer friend of my husband, who spoke of the opportunities for extra work. When I told him that I was Murray's wife and the mother of his children he told me that he had been introduced by Murray to an entirely different woman as his wife. He was told that Murray had an on children and had plenty of money. When I learned this I decided to investigate and notified the police.

TWO INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Two men narrowly escaped death in serious injury at noon today when a large touring car in which they were riding, skidded, struck a telegraph pole and turned turtle at Massachusetts avenue and Chester street, North Cambridge.

The injured are William Moffatt, chauffeur, 55, of Harvard, fracture of the left arm, cuts and bruises about face and body.
William Murphy, of Harvard, 35, cuts and bruises.
The automobile belonged to William L. Crosby of Harvard, who was driving, by Moffatt, who is employed as a chauffeur. The men were riding on the front seat with Moffatt. The men were carried to a private hospital in Chester street. The car was wrecked.

Skylight hats. Positively the very latest. Lucille "Lady Puff" Gordon, tells all about them in next Sunday's Boston AMERICAN.

SOCIETY

The supreme society interest of the day was the wedding of Miss Rosemary Bille to Frederick Thurston Burnham, which took place at noon at Emmanuel Church, Manchester-by-the-Sea. The bride's only attendant was Mrs. Henry S. John Smith (Constance Whistler), an actress of some repute. The groom was a brother of the bride. Charles E. Cutting, Jr., William Davies Foster, Jr., William de Forest West, Roger Carter, Charles O. Burden, John Ross, Richard Whitely, John Phillips and Francis Dillier, all classmates of Mr. Burnham. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edmund Peabody. A wedding breakfast followed at the Summer home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amory Bille.

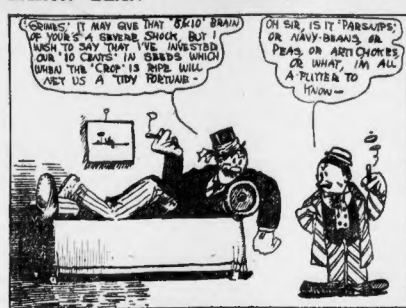

Miss Rose Tattle, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Albert Henry Tattle, and Charles Parke Washburn, Jr., of Fairfield street, were married today at the home of the bride, Cambridge. After the ceremony a large reception was held at Riverbank Court, Cambridge. Mr. and Mrs. Washburn left on an extended honeymoon trip. In their return they will make their home at No. 15 Bourne street, Middlebury, where they will receive their friends after the 1st of September.

The first of the series of "Spring Outings" to be enjoyed by the Play-ers League will be at Camp at Cohasset. A dinner dance has been arranged at the Bradley House, Treen, and many of the members are looking down for the entertainment.

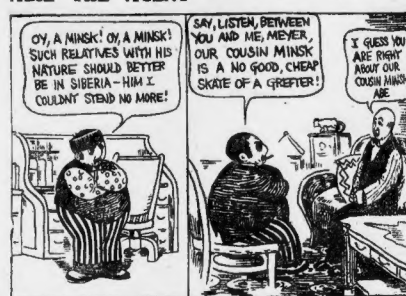

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Coleman College of No. 116 Beacon street will leave for summer home at Little Neck, Portsmouth, N. H., about the 1st of June.

Mrs. Richard MacArthur will entertain at luncheon at the University Men's Tuesday in honor of the English Club.

ELIOT URGES CONFIRMATION OF BRANDIE'S

Washington, May 19.—Charles W. Eliot, president of Harvard, has written Chairman Cullen of the Senate Judiciary committee, urging confirmation of Louis D. Brandeis to the supreme court. The letter will be made public after presentation to the committee Monday.

President Eliot of Harvard, was one of the committee of Boston citizens who engaged counsel to defeat modification.

It has been known for some days that President Eliot had this step in contemplation. He has supported Brandeis' nomination since the time the names and candidates and on especially the name of Mr. Brandeis himself.

That most of the Harvard influence among the overseas and fellows, including President Eliot, has been anti-Brandeis and has regarded, previous to the present, the nomination of Brandeis as a step in the direction of the university.

The exact text of President Eliot's letter will be awaited with interest. It is to be expected that it will be from the point of view of the university, and that it will be in support of the aim of the legal profession, having in long-continued influence.

16 MILES FOR A DIME WITH NEW "GASOLINE"

Tarrytown, N. Y., May 19.—Clifton O. Hadley, an aviator, is interested in a substitute for gasoline, and has divided the inventor of the formula.

He ran his car eighty miles on five gallons of the new "gasoline." It is a white substance with a peculiar odor and is known as "gasoline." It can be made to sell for ten cents a gallon.
